Twelve Reasons

1. Everyone I work with 'loves' me.
2. The cafeteria always has my favorite foods.
3. I can wear shorts to work every day if I want to.
4. I can go barefooted if I want to.
5. I don't have to ask to go to the bathroom.
6. I can go outside whenever I want to.
7. It's okay for the people you work around to hug you and kiss you and tell you they love you all day long.
8. I know all the latest in kids songs, fashions, sayings and health issues.
9. I get paid to play with finger-paint and make a mess if I want to.
10. I get to sit under a tree, have a picnic and enjoy a good story at the zoo or the park.
11. I can actually eat with your fingers and enjoy it.
12. Oh, and then there's NAP TIME!!!!!!!

Place to Learn..

Through pretend play, children develop their skills in using language and in telling and understanding stories.

What you see:

- Children act out scenes in the housekeeping corner
- A child makes her stuffed animal "talk," telling a story

How it promotes school success:

Oral language skills and story-telling are the building blocks of reading and writing, as well as subjects like social studies and science.

Just for Dad

Touchdown Chocolate Bars

Ingredients:

- 1 3/4 c Unsifted flour
- 1 c Sugar
- 1/4 c Hershey's Cocoa
- 1/2 c Cold margarine or butter
- 1 Egg, beaten
- 14 oz can Sweetened Condensed Milk*
- 2 c Hershey's Semi-Sweet Chocolate Chips, divided
- 1 c Chopped nuts

Instructions:

Preheat oven to 350°F.
Combine flour, sugar and cocoa, cut in margarine until crumbly. Add egg; mix until well blended. Reserve 1 1/2 cups crumb mixture. Press remainder evenly on bottom of greased 13x9" baking pan.
Bake 10 minutes.

In saucepan, combine condensed milk and 1 cup Hershey's Chocolate Chips. Over low heat, cook and stir until chips melt and mixture is smooth. Spread evenly over prepared crust. Add nuts and remaining 1 cup chocolate chips to reserved crumb mixture; sprinkle evenly over top.

Happy Father's Day

A Dad is a person who is loving and kind,
And often he knows what you have on your mind.

He's someone who listens, suggests, and defends.

A dad can be one of your very best friends!

He's proud of your triumphs,
but when things go wrong,

A dad can be patient and helpful and strong

In all that you do,
a dad's love plays a part.

There's always a place for him deep in your heart.

And each year that passes,
you're even more glad,
More grateful and proud just to call him your dad!

Thank you, Dad... for listening and caring,
for giving and sharing,
but, especially...

for just being you!
